

A Bright Future

Ban Hui Lin has been studying English, and he has subsequently become employed.

When he first came to the United States, Ban Hui Line could not understand or speak English, and life was very difficult for him. After working with the English for Speakers of Other Languages Tutoring Program through the Literacy Council of Northern Virginia, he has a bright future.