

Moving Up at Work

Berta Alicia Ramos improved her English to improve herself and to move up in her job!

Berta's employer required her to pass an online class for a professional certification. The class was in English, which is not Berta's native language. She attended English class with the Northern Shenandoah Valley Adult Education program. She completed the class, earned her certification, and won high praise from her employer.