

Graduates

Johnette Horace and Miriam Laing participated in the graduation ceremony at J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College.

Miriam is a single mother who worked two jobs but still attained nearly perfect attendance. She plans to attend college with the goal of becoming a surgical nurse. Johnette worked with instructors to excel in her studies. She was thrilled to share her success with family and friends back home in Sierra Leone!