

Courage to Persevere

Katherine Shuttters had to balance work, caring for an ill family member, and preparing for the GED® test. With the support of her family and her faith, she found the courage to persevere, and with the help of the adult educators in Roanoke County, she passed!

Katherine has been offered a supervisor position with a security company.