

Becoming Citizens

Panethong Viphongsay works double shifts every week as a cook so she can send money home to her family in Laos. She enrolled in the Prince William County Schools Adult Education Program, attended citizenship classes and tutoring at the Prince William SkillSource Center, she passed her citizenship test. She says, “If I can do it, you can, too!”