

A Positive Role Model

Stephon Robinson overcame the challenges of being a teenage father living on TANF support to earn a GED® credential and a Career Readiness Certificate. He is working toward a Heating, Ventilation and Air Conditioning (HVAC) journeyman's license through Germanna Community license.

Stephon wants to a positive role model for his two sons, be a good father, and start his own business.