The Most Important Thing to Know

In Virginia NEDP graduates earn an Adult High School Diploma, issued by a local school division.

NEDP is for Adult Learners Who

- ...have busy schedules that make regular class attendance difficult
- ...do not perform their best on standardized tests
- ...want to learn skills that are relevant to their lives
- ...want the option of a fully remote HS credential program

NEDP Roles

- Advisor: works with the client through the Diagnostic Phase
- Assessor: works with the client through the Generalized Assessment Phase
- Portfolio Reviewer: additional certified Assessor who confirms demonstration of every item in NEDP

The same person can serve as both advisor and assessor for the same client.

A client's assessor may NEVER also serve as that client's portfolio reviewer.

NEDP Diagnostic Phase

Closed Diagnostics

- Reading (CASAS GOALS)
- Writing (Response to Prompt)
- Math (CASAS GOALS or Life Skills)

Proctored at NEDP Site or Remotely

Open Diagnostics

- Self-Assessment Checklist
- Technology Skills Self-Assessment Checklist
- College and Career Competency
- O*NET Occupational Interest Profiler

May be Completed at Home

Generalized Assessment

Competency-based, applied performance assessment

1. Communication and Media Literacy
2. Applied Math/Numeracy
3. Information and Communication Technology
4. Cultural Literacy
5. Health Literacy
6. Civic Literacy and Community Participation
7. Consumer Awareness
8. Twenty-First Century Workplace
9. Financial Literacy
10. Geography and History
11. Science

NEDP Generalized Assessment

NEDP as Distance Education

To locate and document NEDP distance hours:

- Log in to mynedp.org as an administrator
- Click “reports”
- Click “Agency Hours Report”
- Run hours for the selected time frame; count “time on task” hours as distance hours

Be careful not to duplicate distance and computer lab hours.

“IOC” time are contact hours found on a separate column.

New York Providers: see state funding rules for reporting hours
